

"CHICKEN JOE" CAMPBELL IS SENTENCED TO HANG

Joliet, Ill., Nov. 29.—"Chicken" Joe Campbell must hang for the murder of Mrs. Edmund Allen, wife of the ex-warden of the penitentiary here. A jury today returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree and recommended the death penalty. The jury had been out since noon Saturday. Campbell was a negro trusty under a life sentence.

After the long period the jury had debated, the announcement of the extreme penalty caused surprise. When the jury was sent to bed at 11 o'clock Saturday night the court was nine to three for conviction and the death penalty. Two were said to have been won over to the majority during yesterday.

Campbell showed not the slightest emotion as he sat slouching in his chair as the jury filed into court and then announced he must hang. He merely turned once, apparently for a better look at the foreman's face as he read the verdict, and then faced front again, with the barest suggestion of a smile playing at the corners of his thick lips.

The negro's lawyers immediately moved for a new trial.

HAMBURG-AMERICAN LINE HIT IN NEW YORK TRIAL

New York, Nov. 29.—Direct admission that vessels chartered by the Hamburg-American line were to be used for transferring supplies to warships at sea was made in an agreement, signed by Karl Buenz, managing director of the company, introduced in evidence at the trial of the four Hamburg-American officials today.

The agreement, made with owners of the steamers Fram and Sommerstadt, guaranteed them against loss in event of damage while transferring supplies to "warships of the empire of Germany."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rev. Irwin St. John Tucker will lecture Friday evening, Dec. 3, on "The Causes of War and the Remedy," at Marquette hall, 6654 S. Halsted. Admission free.

Intercollegiate Socialist society 50-cent dinner, Stock Exchange restaurant, Washington and La Salle, Saturday, Dec. 4, 6:30 p. m. Speakers: John Spargo, "The Real Meaning of Socialism"; Wm. English Walling, "Socialist Plans for Peace."

STRIKEBREAKERS ARRESTED IN WILKESBARRE CAR RIOTS

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 29.—Imported strikebreakers were mobbed again today when one of the Plymouth cars reached that suburb. The non-union men jumped off their car and backed to the sidewalk, using their switch irons and controller cranks to fight their way through. Another car came along and met the same fate, but the two crews escaped serious injury when they found an asylum in a doctor's office.

One of the strikebreakers mobbed at the Hotel Sterling fired a shot into the street and was arrested, charged with carrying concealed weapons. He gave his name as C. Collins, 19th st., New York. Frank Costello, another strikebreaker, giving the same address, was arrested, charged with using a blackjack.

CHICAGO GRAIN. — All grains higher. Provisions up. December wheat closed $1.05½.

NEW YORK STOCKS. — Market withstood short raid. Prices firm.

WEATHER FORECAST

Partly cloudy and slightly colder tonight, with lowest temperature about 22 degrees; Tuesday fair with rising temperature, becoming unsettled again by night; moderate northwest winds becoming variable Tuesday. Temperature Sunday: Highest, 43; lowest, 28.